

Career Minister To Explain Diplomatic Responsibilities

Speaking from 32 years of experience in the service of the United States government, Maxwell Hamilton, former American Minister to Finland and Minister Counselor to the American Embassy in Moscow, will address the student body this morning at 11:30 o'clock in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Hamilton will call on his personal experiences in far-flung parts of the world when he discusses duties and responsibilities of United States Department of State work and foreign service assignments.

The diplomat was educated at Washington and Jefferson college and Princeton university. He is well versed in Far Eastern affairs, having served in China from 1920 to 1927 and as Chief of the Division of Far Eastern Affairs under Secretary of State Cordell Hull, from 1937 until 1943.

He was attached to the Embassy in Moscow from 1943 to 1944, after which he served two years as American Minister to Finland. Hamilton held the position of adviser to the United States delegation to the Japanese Peace conference, held in San Francisco during September of 1951.

Today's speaker holds the distinction of having obtained the highest rank in the United States Foreign Service, that of Career Minister, which he achieved in 1946.

Hamilton is now a resident of Palo Alto. His address is one of a series being sponsored by the College Lecture committee.

Twelve trophies are to be awarded entries in this year's Relays, according to Don Pryor, publicity chairman.

These include awards for first and second place in each Relay division and a trophy for the most original pushcart.

Last year's Relays, ruled over by Queen Donna Atherton, were won by Alpha Tau Omega.

Building Plans Change Coop to Cafeteria

Conversion of the Coop into a self-service cafeteria is expected to be complete and ready for operation sometime in September, William Felse, graduate manager, said Friday.

Actual construction on the $15,000 remodeling job, according to Felse, will begin the day after spring quarter ends and will continue through the summer.

Major renovations will include the laying of a new asphalt tile floor, repainting the interior, installation of a complete fountain with the latest equipment and converting the seating from a single-stool counter arrangement to individual tables seating four persons. Capacity of the new cafeteria will be from 140 to 150 persons, Felse said. Capacity at present is about 100.

The cafeteria will serve full course menus for both breakfast and lunch, with everything being on display. Hours will be from 7 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Felse said, but "we hope to keep open in the evenings." He added, "If so, it will serve coffee, fountain orders and wrapped sandwiches."

Final approval of the remodeling was given last week by the Spartan Shop board, of which Felse is a member.

Honor Society Initiates 57 Education Students

Fifty-seven education students became members of the Beta Alpha chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, national education honor society, at an initiation banquet Tuesday evening at O'Brien's.

Approximately 110 attended the banquet, which also honored the chapter's 25th year on campus.

Dr. John T. Wahlquist delivered the main address of the evening, speaking on "The Public School, the Bulwark of Democracy." Entertainment consisted of vocal selections by Rita Marchoke and an oral reading by Joyce Osborne. Society President Carol Larson was toastmistress.

One of the evening's highlights was the announcement that the Kappa Delta Pi Honorary Key had been awarded to Dr. Henry Meckel, associate professor of education and adviser to the local group, for his outstanding contributions to the society and to education as a whole.

Names of new members released by the chapter are Gretchen Andersen, Richard Angel, Jean Ann Bailey, Edgar Berriman, Phyllis Berriman, Janice Caflander, Mary Louise Carl, Mrs. Josephine M. Coppedge, Delbert Cotton, Joan

Special guests at the banquet were Dr. and Mrs. Wahlquist, Miss Helen Dimmick, Dr. William Sweeney, Mrs. Lula Montgomery, Miss Joyce Backus, Dr. James Curtis, and Dr. Harry Jensen.

Eloise James and Ginny Webb were general chairmen of the affair.

Manager Sees Need for More Eating Space

"We all agree that there is a critical need for more eating facilities on campus," said Mrs. Fern G. Wendt, cafeteria manager, in a recent interview.

In the larger San Jose State college of tomorrow she visions a dining room large enough to serve lunch or snacks to all of the students whenever the need arises, and a larger faculty dining room, "then there would be a place to serve distinguished visitors."

She admits that at the present time this is only "wishful thinking."

She encourages students to take advantage of the two eating places they now have on campus, the Coop and the cafeteria. Students who bring their lunch, she says, can buy a small item to supplement it and eat in the cafeteria, which is located in the Home Economics building.

The cafeteria serves from 250 to 300 students a day, and can serve up to 400 a day. It is open from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. The establishment operates on a non-profit basis as a training lab for dietician students.

While the cafeteria specializes in 35-cent lunches, the Coop specializes in short orders and atmosphere. Each day 2100 students are served an average of 17-cent order.

The Coop serves 100 lunches and 75 breakfasts a day, but it is primarily a place to meet friends and relax. Students often spend an hour over their 17-cent order, to the disgust of the Coop staff.

Hillel Holds Party Tonight

A Hillel party will be held in the home of Miriam Ellis, 1548 Bartlett court, tonight, according to Marcia Fleisfeder, Hillel president. The party will feature a barbecue, dancing, and games.

Hillel members are to meet in front of the YMCA at 6:30 p.m. for rides to the party. It will be the last Hillel event of this school year.

Curriculum Group

John Aiken, ASB president, requested that department heads submit names of students for membership in the curriculum committee if they have not done so to date.

Aiken added that no last quarter seniors should be nominated because the committee will be functioning next fall, and a turnover in personnel might lead to confusion.

remodeled there will be room to serve more customers, according to William Fells, graduate manager. He said that the appearance and atmosphere of the coop would be improved.

"The physical setup at present does not take advantage of the space in the room," she said.

With both the Coop and the cafeteria used to capacity, less than half of the student body are served. Most students go home for lunch, eat off campus, or bring their lunch to school.

Mrs. Wendt encourages students who bring their lunch to buy a small item to supplement it and eat in the cafeteria.

'Gaslight' Play Opens Friday, Ends Season

"Under the Gaslight," opening a seven-day run Friday night in the Little Theater, will be the Speech and Drama department's last production of the season.

The melodrama will run May 28-30, June 1-2 and 4-6. Ticket prices are 50 cents for students, and 75 cents general admission and are available in the Speech office, Room 57. Reservations may be made by calling CY 4-6414.

The famous Augustin Daly play, once a drama, has turned into a hilarious farce, according to Dr. Hugh Gillis, head of the department.

Olios of dancing and singing, featuring members of the cast, will be presented between acts. Elaborate sets and costumes will give an authentic late nineteenth century touch to the production.

Leading roles will be played by Ronald Blood, Gerald Charlebois, Joe Loflin, Donna Wegner and Ruth Daugherty. It will be Blood's first major role.

SJ Citizens See IA Show In Auditorium

Citizens of San Jose turned out Friday and Saturday to see the Industrial Arts show in the Civic auditorium.

Entries in the junior and senior high school Ford Motor company Industrial Arts show had flooded in from all over the county, and judges were busy Friday awarding ribbons to the winning projects.

The Industrial Arts department of the college, in support of the contest, featured a special exhibit, showing a cross section of the teaching side of industrial arts.

Every section of the department, from graphic arts to machine shop had exhibits on display.

Members of the faculty who participated in the show were, Dr. Heber A. Sotzin, chairman, Dan Lopez, consultant in graphic arts, Wayne Champion, consultant in design, and members of Rho chapter, Epsilon Pi Tau, industrial arts fraternity.

Cow Spurns Vet's Hiccup Operation

Columbus, O. (UP) — Pete, the hiccupping Hereford, scorned veterinarians' efforts to stop his stomach rumblings through surgery Friday and went right on hiccupping.

Pete, who has been hiccupping for 54 days, underwent a 75-minute operation Thursday at Ohio State university's veterinary clinic.

The hiccups stopped for a while but veterinary surgeons John Helwig and Vernon Tharp said it was only because Pete was under the influence of the anesthetic used in the operation.

"It was just an exploratory operation and we did not expect a cure," Dr. Helwig explained.

Memorial Day Chosen For IFC Track Meet

Memorial day, Saturday, May 30 has been designated as the date for the IFC track meet, according to Jim Freeman, IFC publicity chairman.

The meet will be held at Spartan stadium. Trials will be held in the morning, and those who qualify will run in the afternoon.

Freeman reported that one man is limited to entering four events. This rule stipulates that a man can run only three track events, but can enter all field events if he so desires.

Rules governing entrants are as follows: All varsity lettermen in track or cross-country are ineligible. (This does not apply to freshmen.)

All members on 1952-53 track team, regardless of whether they lettered or not are ineligible. (This rule includes freshmen.)

'Sacred Cows' Attacked by Earl Warren

Sacramento (UP) — Gov. Earl Warren charged Friday that liquor and racing interests have been too long treated in California as "sacred cows."

The governor said regardless of what measuring stick is used, the liquor industry has not paid its way at either the state or local level for the "terrible toll" it has taken.

"The profits made by the larger tracks are not only enormous, they are scandalous," Warren said. "There is no reason why the state should give a monopoly to track owners and then make millionaires of them."

Warren said he has "no objection" to a proposal by Assemblyman Marvin Sherwin to shift the burden of taxes from income taxes to increased taxes on liquor and an increased share of racing revenues.

Kauffman Hurls No-Hitter Against Zebras, Win 27-0

Spartans Get 24 Big Bingles

By GEORGE NALE
Spartan hard-luck pitcher Ron Kauffman got sweet revenge for his previous losses Saturday night as he hurled a no-hit no run ball game against the San Jose Zebras to win 27-0.

Kauffman has had trouble winning this year because his teammates couldn't seem to hit when he pitched. They went wild against the Zebras as they pounded four pitchers for 24 hits, one of the largest totals in Spartan history.

Kauffman's no-hitter was the final game of the season for the Spartans.

Only 15 men faced Kauffman in the first five innings. He had issued one walk but the runner, Duke Murato, was thrown out attempting to reach third base on a wild pitch. He walked three men in the sixth but a double play pulled him out of the hole. One man reached first on an error in the seventh but he too was wiped out by a twin killing.

In addition to pitching a no-hitter Kauffman made it a perfect night all the way around as he led the Spartan hitters with four singles in six times at bat.

Ron Palma hit the longest ball of the night when he lofted one over the left field fence in the third inning. Palma drove in five runs as he hit two for four.

Other big hitters for the Spartans were Joe Lenhardt, two for four; Bob Poole, three for six; Dick Brady, three for five; Cookie Camara, two for five; Don Visconti, three for six; and Jack Richards, three for five.

Big inning for the Spartans was the seventh when they poured 12 runs across the plate. The only thing the Spartans failed to score in was the fifth.

Most productive of the Spartan hits was a base-clearing triple by Lenhardt.

The game was played at Municipal Stadium.

Kauffman's no-hitter is the only one in many years at Sparta. Johnny Oldham came closest previously when he got a one-hitter this year.

Johnny Oldham

Oldham Fans 17, Loses 3-1

By BON WAGENBACH
Although striking out 17 batters, Johnny Oldham could not master the University of Santa Clara as the Broncos defeated the Spartans, 3-1, Friday night at Washington Park.

The victory gave the Broncos a clean sweep of the two game cross-town series.

The first four batters in the State lineup accounted for the team's total of seven hits. Don Visconti led the squad, gathering three hits in four attempts. Dick Brady followed by hitting two for four and Cookie Camara and Jack Richards each collected one hit.

The lone Spartan run came in the third inning when Jack Richards walked, was sacrificed to second by Visconti and driven home by Brady's single down the left field line. The Raiders left a total of 10 men stranded on the basepaths.

Oldham, in giving up just four singles, had control trouble early in the contest. He walked nine men in the first four innings and a wild pitch actually caused his downfall.

The Broncos had collected one run in the second inning, and Don Benedetti led off the fourth frame with a single. Oldham failed in his attempt to pick off Benedetti, with the runner moving to second. Cookie Camara made an error on Don Cole's grounder, and after Ken Nardinelli walked, Gus Suhr singled in their second run. Dick Camilli walked to force the final Santa Clara run across.

The winning hurler was Cole for the Mission team. He struck out eight and walked four. Oldham issued 11 free passes in the entire game. The tall lefthander struck out the side in the sixth and seventh frames.

Music Defeats Sigma Chi in Softball Play

The Music club continued its winning trail in Intra-mural softball play as the Musicians downed Sigma Chi, 25-16, in a wild hitting affair.

Other scores included Spartan Oriacoli's win over the Collegians by forfeit; ATO defeated Sigma Nu 6-3 and Kappa Alpha won over Phi Sigma Kappa, 8-3.

Schedule for tomorrow pits Lambda Chi Alpha against Kappa Tau on diamond one and SAE meets PiKA on diamond two. Both of these contests are slated for 4 p.m. At 5 p.m., Theta Chi plays Sigma Chi on diamond four. This game will be a deciding factor in the outcome of the fraternity standings.

Wednesday, at 4 p.m., Sigma Nu plays Lambda Chi Alpha on diamond one and DSP faces Theta Chi on diamond two. At 5 p.m., Sigma Pi meets Kappa Alpha on diamond three and diamond four finds Theta Xi playing PSK. No game is scheduled for 5:30 for either tomorrow or Wednesday.

Daily Report on Spartan Athletics

Wyatt, Rhodes Win College Pentathlon

Herman Wyatt and Owen Rhodes whipped through the final day of all-college pentathlon competition Friday to win the open and novice divisions respectively.

Wyatt closed the week-long test of athletic versatility with 415 points.

Rhodes set a new novice record as he ran up a total of 407 points.

John Braun and Carroll Williams were runners-up in the open and novice divisions respectively.

Delta Upsilon placed first in fraternity competition with 1732 points. Sigma Alpha Epsilon was second.

Fraternity points were tabulated by taking the best time or distance recorded for each event by members of the fraternity teams.

Events in the pentathlon are the shot put, high jump, broad jump, 100 yard dash and 880 yard run.

Wyatt's times and distances were shot put, 34' 1"; high jump, 6' 6"; broad jump, 21' 8"; 100 yard dash, 10.7; and 880 yard run, 2:23.

Top five finishers in the open division were Wyatt, Braun, Dick Stuitts, Johnny Slaughter and Bill Hushaw.

First five places in novice competition were taken by Rhodes, Williams, Bill Bray, Bill Lemson, and Bill Boothe.

Fraternity standings placed DU first, followed by SAE, Theta Chi and Kappa Alpha.

This was the first year of fraternity team competition. The pentathlon competition has been held for five years.

Kappa Alpha led after the first two days of competition but faded in the closing days. DU was a strong contender all week and moved into the lead to stay Thursday.

Owen Rhodes Has Unique Track Title

Owen Rhodes, newly-crowned novice pentathlon champion with a new school record, holds a unique title that he received last year. While attending Jefferson High school in 1952, he pole vaulted 15 ft. 1 1/2 in. in the California State track meet.

This effort labeled him as "The holder of the world's high school pole vault record for left-handed Negro athletes."

Building Program Shows Contrast

By DON JOHNSON

If a one-word description of San Jose State's building program were needed, the word "contrast" could do the job quite well.

Contrasts, such as the fast-moving cars of SJS students as opposed to the slow-moving trucks bringing in concrete and lumber, and the tearing down of the old San Jose high school while the new Speech and Drama building going up next to it, have been apparent since the building program first started.

Even the noise of the work being done reflects a marked change. The booming pile-driver distracted many students in the library when the Speech and Drama building was first taking shape. Now, with less noisy work underway, a more library-like calm has returned.

Contrast is shown in the way students have become used to the work going on around the campus. At first the workers on the Speech and Drama building played an almost continuous "show" for large groups of student spectators. With less spectacular work going on, students have started displaying only a casual interest in their sidewalk-superintendent roles.

Seventh street also shows a difference. The busy avenue, which slowed traffic to a snail's pace when it was torn up, allows normal "speed" now that the heating systems are installed in the new Music and Shops and Labs buildings.

Change is apparent in the feelings of students and faculty who will occupy the new buildings. Not too long ago, the attitude was one of "Yes, I suppose we'll see our new buildings sometime maybe." Now the feelings have changed to eagerness to move into the new "homes."

Perhaps, however, the most marked effect is one of both contrast and similarity. With the completion of the new Music building and the Shops and Labs building, the contrast between old and new has become more apparent. With the completion of the Speech and Drama building the contrast will be even greater.

Warren Asks Extension of TV Deadline

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Gov. Earl Warren said Friday he has asked the Federal Communications commission to extend its June 2 deadline for applications for channels for educational television.

"I have written to the commission telling them there is a tremendous interest in educational television in our state," Warren said. "While the road to establish it is rather slow, I believe there is sufficient interest to justify the extension of time so that those interested in educational television can work out an acceptable program."

"I believe the state would miss one of the greatest opportunities it has had in its existence if it overlooked the opportunity of developing a sound educational television program," Warren said.

Accounting Society Officers Elected

Alpha Eta Sigma, honorary accounting society, held elections Wednesday in Room 129 to elect officers for the coming year. The new officers are John Landicho, president; Floyd Miller, vice-president; Donald Graham, treasurer; Dorothy Eggeman, recording secretary; and Jesse Carrillo, corresponding secretary.

Yearbook Artists

Members of the La Torre art staff who are interested in visiting the bindery and engraver's at day tomorrow are requested to check in the La Torre office, B95, before 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Yearbook Balance Deadline Friday

Students are reminded that the $5 balance on yearbooks held with a $2 deposit is due Friday.

Jim Cottrell, publicity manager, urges all students who have not purchased their La Torre to do so in the Graduate Manager's office. There are only a few left, he said.

Sue and Sam To Arrive In Orientation Booklet

Sue and Sam Spartan will arrive on the San Jose State campus sometime in September. Their vehicle will be a 66-page orange booklet entitled "Spartan from the Start."

The booklet is to orient freshman students and jaycee transfers. It will replace "Campus Compass," the orientation booklet formerly published by the Associated Women Students.

"Spartan from the Start" will contain cartoons, photographs and text, according to its compiler, James Jacobs, assistant professor of English. A special feature will be a five-page section devoted to answers to questions most frequently asked the deans.

Jacobs reported that he has been aided by Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women; Dean of Men Stanley Benz; and students Ingrid Andersson, Carol Larson, Tom Berrey, Bob Friedman and Fred Long.

A representative of each department has prepared the text material concerning his field.

A working fund for the booklet was appropriated at Wednesday's meeting of the Student Council.

House To Hold Buffet Supper

The Home Management house will entertain at a buffet supper on Monday, according to Mrs. Mary Morgan, adviser. Guests will be Claudia Meade, Florence Cunningham, Luriel Lee, Dorothy Bell, Joan Christopher and Frances Roy.

Hostesses will be Nancy Lee Dahlin, Cynthia Bishop, Dorala Sadler, Rosalyn Yee and Barbara Smith.

U.S. Forest Service Gives Tahoe Lots To Ticket Holders

SACRAMENTO (UP)—A lucky 140 persons held the right numbers Friday and, for a mere $20 to $45 a year, will have summer homes near Fallen Leaf lake in the Lake Tahoe vacation area of California.

The numbers were drawn Thursday for 140 one-half acre lots made available for homesite use by the U.S. Forest service. Persons whose numbers were drawn will have the use of the lots as long as they comply with the requirements, which included generally cleaning up the lot, preparing a site and building a cabin.

Two of the sites went to home owners at Echo Lake whose cabins were wiped out in snowslides in the winter of 1950-51.

First lucky number was that of L. E. Clifford of 2337 Boxwood avenue, San Jose, followed by H. C. Hansen and Ralph G. Day of Davis, and Dean S. Kingman, Palo Alto.

Among the 140 alternates drawn was Rep. George P. Miller of Contra Costa county.

Nash's Verses Bring Mirth To Minnesota

From Minnesota Daily

More than 2,600 students and Nash fans listened and chuckled during 50 minutes of Ogden Nash's verse and witticisms at convocation yesterday.

Contrary to popular belief, Nash did not write "Boys never make passes at girls who wear glasses" or "The Purple Cow." "I," said Nash, "am the 'candy is dandy but liquor is quicker' one."

Nash began working as an editorial staff member of a publishing house. He had intentions of being a "serious" poet, but after years of reading other writers' writers, he "developed a small sense of good taste and stopped writing."

After seven years of editing poetry submitted to his employers, he noticed that poorly written phrases often were unconsciously funny. He then saw the possibilities of consciously using this style in poetry.

Professing to be a commonplace man, Nash said, "I should think one glance would tell you that I have no exotic experiences to bring you."

When he was growing up, Nash said, automobiles depended on side cranks. This was also the day of Lillian Russell, "although I was too young to know where she cranked," quipped Nash.

"Manhattan log-rolling," a process by which critics write favorable reviews for their friends' plays, never worked for Nash. His old New Yorker associate, Wolcott Gibbs, panned Nash's lyrics for both "One Touch of Venus" and "Two's Company," musical comedies.

Some of the poems Nash read were: "Allow Me, Madam, But It Won't Help," a parody on the way women put their coats on and off while sitting; "Taboo to Boot," ("One bliss for which there is no match. Is, when you itch, To up and scratch."); "Peek a Boo—I Almost See You," on the difficulties of a man who must use two pairs of glasses.

Ogden Nash concluded the convocation by reading "The Termite." "Some Primal termite knocked on wood And tasted it, and found it good, And that is why your Cousin May Fell through the parlor floor today."
